

Singapore Disability Sports Awards presented by Haw Par Corporation

The Singapore Disability Sports Awards is organised by Singapore Disability Sports Council (SDSC) and proudly presented by Haw Par Corporation. The awards aim to recognise the achievements and contributions made by individuals or groups in the disability sports community. In acknowledgement of the multi-faceted efforts that have made disability sports into what it is today, the awards are applicable to athletes, coaches, organisers, and volunteers.

Sportsperson

(Nomination by SDSC and its member organisations only)

Sportsman | Sportswoman | Sportsboy | Sportsgirl

These awards recognise athletes who have shown not only outstanding performance (medal from major games) on the field, but also a commitment to the community, and good character.

Team

This award aims to recognise the significant achievements made by teams, which face unique challenges that are not as salient in individual sports.

Contributor

(Open nomination to public)

Coach (High Performance) | Coach (Developmental)

This award aims to recognise coaches who not only produced stellar athletes, but also made important contributions to the development of disability sports.

Community Impact (Volunteering)

This award aims to recognise contributions to the inclusion or empowerment of persons with disabilities (PWDs) in sports through voluntary efforts.

Community Impact (Events and initiatives)

This award aims to recognise contributions to the inclusion or empowerment of persons with disabilities (PWDs) in sports through organising or promoting activities/events related to disability sports.
